CHICAGO BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

Northwest District Council

Dec. 5, 1920.

ATTENTION YE CAMPERS OF CHECAUGAU:

The second annual festival reunion of the Checaugau Campers will be held on Wednesday, Dec. 15th at 6.30 PM at Tr. #50s Headquarters, The Church of our Savior, 532 Fullerton Ave, near Clark St.

Those who have attended Camp Checaugau either 1919 or 1920 are particularly urged to be present at this festival occasion. Troops in this Northwest District who had no members at Camp Checaugau in either year will be allowed to send two representatives. All Scoutmasters and Assistants are cordially invited to attend.

THE CORPS:-

1. All the "CAMP WOPS", "GOOD FELLOWS", AND BIG GUNS", will be present.
2. "FELIX" assisted by TR. #50 will put on the "eats" in good old Checaugau style.
3. Vaudeville entertainment will be by the tents which won this event in their respective periods.
4. Pictures of Camp Checaugau both 1919 and 1920 and a comedy motion picture will be on the program.
5. You get all this for the sum of 50¢.
6. Send in your reservations at once. Don't delay, for none will be accepted after midnight, Dec. 15th.

We sincerely hope that you will make an effort to be present with the rest of the Campers.

Yours for a good time,

J. H. Sowerby, M.D.

Field Scout Executive.

Troop 311 which meets at the Chicago Evangelistic Institute has a new Assistant Scoutmaster, Mr. Omer Idso. Troop 233 has just been organized at St. Stephen's R. C. Slovenian Church, 1852 W. 22nd Place, under the leadership of Rev. F. Kazimir who is assisted by Michael Zeleznikar and John Jerich, Assistant Scoutmasters. Messrs. Rev. Jeronim Knoblihar, Rev. Hugo Bren and F. Paschal Sedlak are members of the Troop Committee. The Mandell M. E. Church has just organized Troop 268 with Mr. Rueben M. Tetzlaff as Scoutmaster and Earl Tonkinson as Assistant Scoutmaster. Mr. Tetzlaff knows Scouting thoroughly, having started as a Tenderfoot and having experience as an Assistant Scoutmaster. He is assisted by the following Troop Committee: William H. Evans, Peter M. Black and Willard H. Childs. Troop 207 has just been organized at the Second Baptist Church, Lincoln Street and Jackson Blvd. Our troop Committee, Messrs. Maxson, Fraser and Walker and Field Scout Executive Bernd visited us at our third meeting and hiked with us to Garfield Park. We meet every Thursday evening at 7:00 p.m.

E. R. Pfeil, Scoutmaster.

Troop 235 recently hiked to Blue Island, Ill., under the leadership of Assistant Scoutmaster Morris Ruskin. There were over 85% of the troop present. We started from Beverly Hills and walked along Western Ave., to 95th St., We then walked west to Kedzie Ave., which is a dirt road, fine hiking, and a straight-away hike to Blue Island. The first rest we took was at 111th st., and Kedzie Ave., which is near Mount Greenwood, Ill. After hiking about five miles more, which seemed like fifteen miles to some of the boys, we reached Blue Island. We ate dinner on the outskirts of the town. After eating, we marched through the business district and out again. We then walked back towards Chicago, along Western Ave. At 111th St., there was Tony and his Peanut Stand. I'll venture to say that even a non-scout could have trailed us by the peanut shells we dropped. Reaching Beverly Hills, we cooked supper and made a roaring big campfire where stories were told. Gee! but we had a grand and glorious time.

Harvey Crawford, Scribe.

Blanc

W. W. Bread

apple Butter

Cocoa